RULES AND CONDITIONS

1. AUDIENCE ETIQUETTE. All participants are expected to behave in a manner conducive to fair and honest competition, and to give encouragement and due consideration to each other. Any distracting or intimidating behaviour or display of bad sportsmanship will not be tolerated, and may be cause for disqualification or removal from hall. All Competitors compete at their own risk.

During performances, there should be no movement in the hall. Audience members are expected to maintain silence, and have mobile phones and pagers switched off.

Parents or Teachers who prompt competitors from the audience may cause disqualification. The Adjudicator will prompt or give permission to begin again where he/she considers it appropriate.

Under no circumstances are Teachers, Parents, or Competitors to approach the Adjudicator's Table during the course of the Session. Enquiries are to be directed to Convenor, Compere or person on the Results Table. Any objection must be lodged in writing with the Convenor within 1 hour of the performance in question.

Prizes may be withheld where work is not of a high enough standard, or extra prizes awarded, where Adjudicator deems it necessary, with the concurrence of the Committee. The Adjudicator's decision is final.

2. RECORDING DEVICES. Mobile phones, cameras, videos, audio and other recording devices WILL NOT BE PERMITTED UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES during Eisteddfod sessions. This is not a Committee rule, as any recording of a performance may be breaching current Copyright and Privacy laws. See Convenor for alternative arrangements.

Use of Backing CD's/recorded effects is permitted as part of a performance. Please check with Convenor 24 hours prior to performance regarding availability of power points and equipment.

3. DRESS CODE. Must be neat and suitable for presentation on stage. (No bare midriffs or thongs - Thank You)
4. PHOTOCOPYING. Due to possible LEGAL CONSEQUENCES, NO COMPETITOR at this Eisteddfod can be given permission to perform on stage from a photocopy of work that is still under copyright.

According to copyright laws, photocopying of work under copyright is not permissible, and may not be used in a performance. However, photocopies may be submitted only to the adjudicator for his/her perusal. See Copyright page at the back of the schedule.

Because of the copyright laws, the adjudicator's photocopies MUST be destroyed.

5. OWN CHOICE ITEMS. Check source of selections & item description carefully, as disqualification may occur.

The standard of each own choice selection will be considered by the adjudicator.

Own choice selections must be APPROPRIATE FOR ITEM AND AGE OF COMPETITOR.

Material presented must be acceptable for a GENERAL AUDIENCE. The Committee, in concurrence with the Adjudicator, may refuse to hear material considered inappropriate. Please edit the text appropriately if the piece chosen does not fall into this category. If in doubt, contact the Convenor.

An Adjudicator's copy must be provided, otherwise competitor may be disqualified. Adjudicator only is allowed to view photocopies.

No competitor is allowed to repeat any composition with which he/she has won a 1st or 2nd prize at the previous year's Eisteddfod. This rule applies to every section in the schedule; nor is it permissible to enter the same piece in different items/genres.

Own Choice/Set Piece Copies – Selection MUST be labelled with item number and competitor's number, (NO NAMES PLEASE), with the copyright form attached.

PURPLE FOLDERS labelled with item number will be placed on the Results Table at the rear of the hall before the start of each session. The competitor must write the name of their selection on the compere's sheet attached to the front of the folder. The competitor will then be responsible for placing their selection in the correct folder.

The folder will remain on the table until just before the commencement of the Item, and will be returned there, with adjudication sheets, at the end of each item. It is the responsibility of the competitor or teacher to collect adjudication sheets and any original copies, after each item.

The committee takes no responsibility for adjudication sheets, original music, lost property, uncollected prizes and/or money beyond the final day of the section of the Eisteddfod that the competitor entered. Any uncollected PRESENTATION EVENING bursaries, awards, and prizemoney not collected from the Church Office by 30 November in the year of competition will be returned to Eisteddfod funds.

6. CHAMPIONSHIP ITEMS. To compete in any championship, a competitor must have competed in at least one relevant age item. In Championship items, competitors must compete in the item as programmed, preferably in order. Order to be altered ONLY at the discretion of the Convenor.

7. AGE LIMITS. Age is determined as at 1st July in the year of competition.

Where AGE limit is imposed, competitors will be required to enter appropriate age competition only, and may not enter older age sections except 'Open', (provided they also enter their relevant age item.)

Although Junior competitors may enter Open sections, no allowances will be made for their age either in adjudication or in scheduling of item.

8. PERFORMING OUT OF ITEM. Please indicate on the side of the entry form any non-negotiable commitments and every effort will be made during programming to accommodate your requests, whenever and if at all possible.

Competitors must compete in scheduled item within the session specified to be considered for a place. Adjudicator should not be expected to remember the standard of competitors out of item.

However, if unforeseen circumstances arise notification is required 48 hours in advance of the scheduled performance. A limited number of requests will be taken. Requests may be denied should they interfere with consequent sessions. Arrangements will be based on the availability of the convenor and the adjudicator. You will be adjudicated but NOT given a mark or placing. It still remains the responsibility of the competitor to compete as scheduled.

Competitors need to arrive for the commencement time of their Session. The committee is unable to hold items open should the items within the Session run earlier than expected (due to withdrawals of competitors, or other factors beyond our control).

9. PROGRAMMING. The Committee reserves the right to divide or combine sections, and to amend the program in any way that will facilitate fairer competition or more effective programming. Amendments will be duly advised in the program.

Should there be fewer than 3 competitors in any item, the Committee reserves the right to cancel the item, and will notify, by phone, those who have already entered. Should any section be too large to facilitate adjudication, the Committee will divide it, age-wise if possible, thus giving competitors a fairer chance. Prizes will then be presented for each section.

10. DUET/TRIOS, POETRY IN PAIRS and DUOLOGUES. Competitors may enter in the same item with a different partner/s and a different piece or selection. (e.g. Trio may use same Duet Partners plus one other, singing a different piece.) A competitor who forms a part of the duet/trio can perform a work that won 1st or 2nd prize in the previous year, but they cannot perform the same part.

DUETS/TRIOS – MUST be WRITTEN and performed in 2/3 PART HARMONY (Vocal/Piano & Instrumental).

11. ACCOMPANISTS. NO OFFICIAL ACCOMPANIST IS PROVIDED. It is suggested that performers make their own arrangements for accompaniment. However, a list of pianists who may be able to assist is provided below. All arrangements are strictly between those parties involved, and do not involve the Committee in any way. For convenience of all concerned, PLEASE MAKE ARRANGEMENTS IN ADEQUATE TIME.

Those perpetual Cups, Shields and "Memorial" trophies that are presented, (e.g. Betty Schmidt, Doug Buchanan – Vocal, Choral Speaking – Speech & Drama) shall be held for one year only. PLEASE ENSURE THAT, IF YOU HAVE WON any of these items, that they are RETURNED TO THE EISTEDDFOD COMMITTEE AT LEAST ONE WEEK PRIOR TO THIS YEAR'S COMPETITION.

13. BURSARIES. The Committee expects that the Bursaries will be used to further studies as this is the specific purpose these Bursaries are donated and awarded. They are not for personal use. Winners are requested to write a personal note of thanks to the donor.

14. COMMITTEE'S RIGHTS.
